

Fruition by Linda Dallas

Two paintings by Linda Dallas, Winter Garden Vine and Rhubarb & Green Man, have been juried into the 2011 Watercolor USA exhibition.

Fruition, an original design by Linda Dallas was selected by the Raleigh Art Commission and Capital Area Transit (CAT) for Art-On-The-Move, a public art project that places artwork on the sides of CAT buses.

Three WSNC members will be published in Splash 13: Alternative Approaches. They are David Stickel, Light Years, Elise Beattie, Summer Social, and Alexis Lavine, Sisters. They were among 115 winners whose work was chosen from over 1600 entries! Congratulations to you all on such fine work.

Sisters by Alexis Lavine

Elise Beattie has the following accomplishments to share with her old friends here in NC.

Summer Social by Elise Beattie

- Two paintings published in Best In America - Watermedia VOL 2 pages 25 -26

- Received signature membership to the Northwest Watercolor Society

- "Best of Show" at Paducah's 75th Annual Woman's Club Art Exhibit

- Solo exhibit: April 23 - May 13 at Paducah, KY city hall

- Accepted Into Kentucky National 2011 Art Exhibit at Clara M. Eigel Gallery/Murray State University.

Congratulations!!

See more of Elise Beattie's art at: www.embart.com

David Stickel's painting "Light Years" is included in the 2011 American Watercolor Society Exhibition in New York City. In addition to receiving the Mary and Sol Stucker Award, it was also selected for the Annual Traveling Exhibition. The painting also received an Honorable Mention in Watercolor Artists Magazine's art competition, and was published in the February 2011 issue.

Light Years by David Stickel

Jane Carter achieved signature membership in the Southern Watercolor Society this year with her entry "Cheese Shop". Jane also won the WSNC Award for best entry from NC at the Southern Watercolor Society Event

Cheese Shop by Jane Carter

Marianne Fletcher received Third Place for her painting Mediterranean Harbor at the Wilmington Art Association Spring Show.

Mediterranean Harbor by Marianne Fletcher